

OF STERLING VALUE....

Is a piece of fine CUT GLASS. It is something which will not wear out and is an ornament when not in use. You will find here several very choice pieces of CUT GLASS marked to sell at prices much lower than their real value; and you cannot make any mistake in the purchase of one or more pieces. CUT GLASS, like Diamonds, always has a market value. Libby Cut Glass, Gorman Sterling Silver

TONOPAH SELECTED AS NEUTRAL COURT

GOLDFIELD AND MILLERS WILL CONTEST IN GAME OF BASKETBALL

The next game of basketball will be the long looked for contest between Goldfield and Millers on the Airdome court, which is a neutral court. The manager of the Tonopah team has been asked by both Millers and Goldfield to arrange a date in the near future when both teams could compete, and Tuesday evening, December 28, is the date arranged. In addition to this contest, which should be worthy of the price of admission by itself, the local squad under Captain Dyan will play a picked team composed of players home from the different colleges for their Christmas vacation.

Any of the local fans who have seen either Millers or Goldfield perform on the Airdome court are certainly assured of some game for while both of these teams have gone to defeat under the hand of Tonopah, they put up such strong defense that the contest next Tuesday should be well worth seeing as neither team will have any advantage over the other. The first big game for the local squad will be played in the Airdome January 16 against the strong squad from Austin, who have so far this season won every game played by them. The dance after Tuesday night's game will be under the auspices of the Tonopah basketball team and the music will be furnished by a six-piece orchestra, and the floor will be in the best condition possible.

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight—Xmas eve—the best program of the week, will be shown at the Butler. It is a William Fox production, in which he presents Theda Bara, Satan's soulmate, in a photoplay version of "Carmen," an innovative revelation of the silent stage's extreme possibilities, absolute single and alone in sumptuous magnificence, ideas, cast and scenic equipment. Nearly one year was required to complete this picture; its cost staggers belief. Theda Bara, whose portrayals upon the film for Mr. Fox have made her the most talked of woman in the world, distinguishes herself anew in the title role of the pouting and flouting gypsy flirt. The true romance of the old Spain before the hand organ took the place of the guitar, permeates "Carmen" throughout. A band of real gypsies were lured from their mountain retreats to lend verity. Through the streets roam pretty grisettes and proud grandes, dark beauties of the tabbouline, orange sellers, chocolate vendors, soldiers, gypsies. Their castles, palaces, plazas, cathedrals, stores are faithfully reproduced.

At the close of the first show the automobile and three other prizes will be given away.
The preliminary reel, which will be run ahead of the feature, will be a Sidney Drew comedy, which is sure to be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Tomorrow—Xmas day—a Charlie Chaplin comedy, and a Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature, with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in "playing lead," the first of its kind ever shown in Tonopah. Sunday, Elsie Janis in "Betty in Search of a Thrill." A dainty convent girl braving the whirlpools of New York night life.
